It's recommended that the reservoir be installed at least 1 pipe diameter below the process outlet, but as high as possible above the SOPT. Length of pipe ‘x’ will act as a reservoir, if not sufficient as per the reservoir sizing chart, add additional reservoir.